

Vocabulary and Study Guide

Vocabulary

1. Draw a line connecting the vocabulary word to its meaning.

longhouse

A type of government in which groups join together confederation

A symbol of an agreement used by Haudenosaunee

wampum

To exchange goods without using money

barter

A large shelter made of wooden poles and covered with bark

Study Guide

2. Read "The Eastern Woodlands." Then fill in the blanks below.

The Woodland people lived in a region that received a lot of rain and had ample _____. They got their food by _____ wild rice, hunting, and farming. Most Woodland American Indians grew corn, squash, and _____. Farther north, the Haudenosaunee built _____ for shelter and wore _____ robes to protect them from the cold.

3. Read "The Haudenosaunee." Then fill in the blanks below.

Each Haudenosaunee clan was governed by a _____. These Haudenosaunee women chose the _____ for each group. The chiefs from the Mohawk, Oneida, Onondaga, Cayuga, and _____ groups made up the governing confederation of the _____.